

Roythornes Secure – the complete employment package

- Three levels of protection
- No worries about legal costs
- Access to employment law experts

Employment advice tailored to your needs

Having employment experts on hand is invaluable for any business, even more so when they've developed an in-depth understanding of your processes and objectives.

Roythornes Secure – our fixed-fee employment advice service makes our employment team feel like your employment team. It means we're always on hand to help, with a real appreciation of your position, and that you can confidently ask for advice, without worrying about costs.

Secure comes in three packages. You simply decide the level of benefits you need to suit your business. The benefit options include:

Employment law helpline: Access to an employment law helpline during normal office hours – its ideal for quick queries and questions. Simply call one of our team before you act and you could find that you have avoided some very expensive mistakes.

Annual contract health check. Contracts of employment are the bedrock of the employment relationship and it's crucial that they are up to date and comply with the latest legislation. Our annual health check will give you the assurance that you are always using the most up to date version.

Employment e-briefings. Our employment e-briefings come straight to your in box and keep you up to date with changes and news in employment law as they happen - an invaluable snapshot for any employer.

An employment law handbook. Our handbook provides you with an easy reference guide to employment basics. It's the ideal desktop companion – provided in easily accessible electronic format.

Insurance cover. For full protection, to indemnify you against any claims and compensation awarded against you in employment matters, giving your business financial peace of mind.

Health and Safety advice. Critical to all businesses, our Health and Safety team have years of experience in this important area and will provide guidance and advice on regulations and their implementation.

You will also be joining a growing network of like minded employers, and receive invitations to seminars and workshops on employment law, where you can meet our team and network with other businesses in the region.
